

XM local traffic and weather is a very valuable service. Currently this same information, in the format presented, is not available on other AM or FM stations. Further, the information can be heard when beyond the reach of traditional radio.